K&K ADVOCATES WERE AWARDED THREE INTERNATIONAL ACCOLADES

JAKARTA In 2015, K&K Advocates intellectual property have been awarded two international accolades, in relation to its performance in the field of intellectual property.

The first award presented by Corporate INTL, to K&K Advocates intellectual property was for being Law firm of the year 2015 pertaining to its practice and service in the fields of intellectual property. The second award was presented by Chambers Asia Pacific, pertaining to K&K Advocates intellectual property, being the leading IP firm in Indonesia. Finally, the third award was presented by Finance Monthly for the Category of IP Enforcement Of The Year Indonesia.

Such international awards further strengthen K&K Advocates position as one of the prestigious law firms with a high reputation in Indonesia, particularly in the field of intellectual property.

K&K Advocates was chosen for the two international awards after going through a rigorous selection process by Corporate INTL, Finance Monthly and Chambers Asia Pacific.

Justisari Perdana Kusumah, the Managing Partner K&K Advocates states that the international awards were forms of high tribute both to himself and also to his firm that have been providing high dedication to intellectual property.

We, K&K Advocates team value highly the trust that has been given by our clients. As such, we will deliver the best to our clients and continue to work professionally," he said. (su)
